

Here Wycombe, Boro!

PART-TIMERS LIMBER UP FOR AYRESOME TEST

NO, IT'S not the All Blacks doing their famous Maori leap (left), it's the gallant part-timers from High Wycombe loosening up on Middlesbrough FC's training ground at Hutton Road today in readiness for the Cup replay at Ayresome Park tonight.

And there was a special session for goalkeeper John Maskell (right). He had an easy time of it in the first meeting on Saturday, but the feeling is that he'll have a lot more to do tonight, with Boro determined to wipe out the memory of their poor showing on the sloping Loakes Park pitch.

Wycombe Wanderers are able to call on an unchanged side; Boro await a late fitness test on striker Alan Feggon.
